AWARD YEARBOOK
Featuring the Girl Scout
Gold Award Class of 2018
IN YOUR HONOR

FROM THE DESK OF THE CEO

Dear Girl Scouts:

Never underestimate the power of a girl to change the world. Girl Scouts do it every day.

Congratulations to all the Girl Scouts in this year's Award Yearbook. They have demonstrated outstanding leadership and self-determination. This year's Gold Award class has inspired me, hopefully as you read their stories, they will inspire you too!

The Gold Award is the most prestigious award in the world a girl can earn, and it is only available to Girl Scouts. Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors transform their ideas and visions into actionable plans with measurable and far-reaching results. They create projects they are passionate about, and in so doing help their community and the world.

This year, 188 Girl Scouts earned the Gold Award. They've written school policy to even the playing field for the recognition of Varsity athletes, challenged stereotypes of beauty, wrote a children's book on immigration and discrimination and helped increase voter turnout. These remarkable young women represent some of the brightest and best, and are essentially the culmination of a worthy Girl Scout experience. Behind them stand parents, Girl Scout leaders and advisors, teachers and sister Girl Scouts supporting and cheering them on. That is the power of the Girl Scout Gold Award.

The Silver Award is the highest honor earned by Girl Scout Cadettes, who take on a cause that is important to them, make a plan and take action. We had an impressive 944 Girl Scout Cadettes in our Council, devote over 50 hours, to complete the Silver Award. Girls who accomplish this award often go on to earn the Gold Award.

Unique to our Council is a special award known as the Silver Trefoil Award, which was earned by 195 girls this year. These girls dedicated 100 hours to their community, Girl Scouts and world. Their service sets them up for a lifetime of volunteerism.

Congratulations to all the Girl Scouts recognized in our award yearbook. Your hard work and perseverance has paid off. Thank you to all the dedicated parents and volunteers who helped Girl Scouts on this rewarding and often life-changing journey. Because of your support, girls have the opportunity to lead like a Girl Scout.

Sincerely,

Lidia Soto-Harmon

ABOUT THE GOLD AWARD

The Gold Award is Girl Scouting's highest honor. This prestigious award is earned by a select group of Girl Scouts who have demonstrated a high commitment to improving their communities, and advocating for lasting change. This past year, from March 16, 2017 to March 15, 2018, 188 Girl Scouts from 25 counties in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia earned the Gold Award.

The road to the Gold Award begins with discovery. Each girl uses her own values and skills to identify a community issue she is passionate about and then determines the topic and audience for her project. Before proceeding, each girl submits a project proposal to the Gold Award Panel. The Panel welcomes all projects for which there is a demonstrated need. The Panel works with Girl Scouts to support the development of their projects and act as mentors along the way.

While working on her project, each Girl Scout dedicates herself to advancing her cause and accomplishing her goal. All of the projects completed this year will have a lasting and positive impact on our region and beyond. From protecting the environment and teaching young people about community issues, to promoting healthy behaviors and helping the homeless, these Girl Scouts have exhibited outstanding leadership, exceptional organizational skills, and a sincere commitment to improving their communities. Congratulations to all of our Gold Award Girl Scouts!

The following pages feature this year's Gold Award Girl Scouts and descriptions of their projects. By necessity, the descriptions are brief and may not fully describe the scope of the project.

GOLD AWARD SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Many colleges and universities offer scholarships to Girl Scouts who have earned their Gold Award, because they recognize the leadership skills required to earn the Gold Award.

This year, our Council offered Gold Award scholarships to graduating high school seniors valuing $1000 each to attend the college of her choice. The Gold Award Scholarship Panel was comprised of members of the business community with a commitment to Girl Scouting. The panel reviewed written applications and identified semifinalists to be interviewed at the Council office. Based on the interviews, committee members selected the scholarship winners. Our Council also offered a Young Woman of Distinction award to a Gold Award recipient, valuing $2000.

The Council's scholarships for Gold Award recipients are funded through generous gifts from Sara Phillips, a lifetime Girl Scout volunteer, in support of the Sara and Lawrence Phillips Scholarships; a gift from an anonymous donor in honor of Marilyn Carr; and Shenandoah Region scholarships supported through an endowment from lifetime Girl Scouts volunteers Eva L. Woolridge and Lynne Seibert-Steptoe.
