

WOMEN OF DISTINCTION NOMINATION FORM

A Tribute to Women Leaders in the Eastern Panhandle

Wednesday, October 10, 2018

Holiday Inn, Martinsburg, WV

The WOMEN OF DISTINCTION award is an opportunity to celebrate outstanding women in the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia and to foster awareness of the community initiatives provided by Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital. Nominations are open to the public: businesses, organizations, and individuals are encouraged to submit a nomination today! There are so many women who do great things in their lives and this is our chance to recognize their accomplishments in a very special way.

The women who are selected to be a Girl Scout Woman of Distinction will be honored at a luncheon at the Holiday Inn in Martinsburg, West Virginia. We look forward to honoring these women who have distinguished themselves as outstanding role models for girls and women through their achievements and service to the community.

Guidelines for Nominations:

- A. When submitting a nomination, please consider current or former residents of Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan Counties. It is not a requirement for the nominee to have been a Girl Scout. [Kindly note: No one who is running for office is eligible to be nominated.]
- B. Nominations can be no more than two pages, type font no smaller than 11pt. Up to two, one-page letters of recommendation may be included with your nomination. Consider including:
 - a. Professional Contributions: What makes the individual outstanding in her career? (e.g., being a small business owner, someone who excels in a nontraditional field, etc.) What responsibilities did she have in this role(s)? Please note her training and educational background.
 - b. Community Contributions, including leadership roles: How long and in what capacity has the nominee been involved in an organization? Did she serve in a leadership role? Chair a committee? Other activities beyond basic membership? Specific examples are helpful.
 - c. How is this person a role model for girls and young women?
 - d. Any examples of resilience or advocacy? Example: Obstacles the nominee had to overcome in order to be a successful leader or role model for young women.
 - e. And last, but not least, tell us your nominee's story: why is she outstanding?
- C. Please submit information on the attached Nomination Form by May 4th, 2018.
