Keyboard Conversations with Jeffrey Siegel: The Joyous Music of Beethoven

Who: All

When: September 23, 2018 7-9pm

Where: Concert Hall 4373 Mason Pond Drive, Fairfax, VA 22030

What: Virtuoso pianist Jeffrey Siegel returns with his popular series to enthrall us with some of Beethoven's most upbeat music. Become a classical music insider as Siegel performs an all-Beethoven program in his first concert of the season, including the humorous Rage over a Lost Penny and the exuberant Polonaise in C major. In addition, he will play the Theresa Sonata and answer the question, "who was she?". Finally, Siegel will play the Farewell Sonata, and explore who was leaving, and why Beethoven was so deeply affected. Perfect for classical music lovers and newcomers alike, his signature "concert with commentary" format gives the story behind the score for an experience that is both entertaining and educational. "A musical bridge-builder in action...Siegel showed just how illuminating the combination of words and abstract music can be" (Toronto Star). An always-popular Question & Answer session with the audience concludes the program.

Fee: $13 - $22
