

---

Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts

Volunteer Opportunities Available for Girl Scouts

---

Theatre-in-the-Woods Volunteer

- Available for anyone 13 – 113 years old
- Volunteer experience that can count toward required community service hours and looks great on a resume
- Assist with box office operations and patron assistance
- Theater runs from June to August with shows at 10 and 11 am, flexible schedule available
- Volunteer hours count as Federal service hours for Girl Scouts pursuing the Silver Trefoil Award

---

International Children's Festival

- Available for anyone 14 or older and Teen Girl Scout Troops
- Volunteers work to keep the park clean and pristine as it fills with thousands of visitors
- While helping out, volunteers are given the opportunity to visit the international exhibits at the festival and learn about other cultures
- Volunteer hours served during the Children's Festival may count as international service hours for Girl Scouts pursuing the Silver Trefoil Award

Arts Council of Fairfax County
Connecting cultures through the arts

---

To Apply...

- Submit an on-line application at www.nps.gov/wotr
  - Click "Volunteer at Wolf Trap"
  - Click "Volunteer Opportunities"
  - Choose "Wolf Trap Volunteer at Theatre-in-the-Woods 2009" or "Volunteer at International Children's Festival" and then click "Apply Online Now"
-

www.nps.gov/wotr or (703) 255-1893 for additional information