A CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE 2010 GIRL SCOUTS WOMEN OF DISTINCTION

Martinsburg, WV — The Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital (Shenandoah Region) encourages businesses, organizations and individuals to nominate an outstanding woman for the 2010 WOMEN OF DISTINCTION. This program recognizes exceptional women from the Eastern Panhandle, Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan Counties, West Virginia who have distinguished themselves as excellent leaders and role models for girls.

“We are delighted to continuing this proud tradition of honoring women in our community,” said Lorrie Caudle, Regional Director of the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital. “There are so many women who do great things, and we want to spotlight their accomplishments for girls to see.”

The deadline to submit nominations is June 25, 2010. Nomination forms can be mailed to the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital, 153 McMillan Court, Martinsburg, West Virginia 25404-6316 or faxed to 304.263.8836.

The Women of Distinction program is in its sixth year. The program benefits local Girl Scouts and helps to fund the Girl Scout Gold Award Scholarship fund. A special event is held in honor of the Women of Distinction Wednesday, September 29, 2010 at the Holiday Inn in Martinsburg. For more information visit our website at www.gscnc.org.

About Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital

Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital (GSCNC) is a non-profit organization with over 90,000 members, including 63,000 girls in 4,900 troops throughout the District of Columbia, eight counties in Maryland, ten counties in Virginia and seven counties in West Virginia. With the help of more than 27,000 dedicated volunteers, the generosity of corporations and foundations, and our popular Girl Scout cookie program, GSCNC helps girls from kindergarten to 12th grade become leaders through a wide range of fun and educational activities. GSCNC is headquartered in Washington DC, with offices in Frederick and Waldorf, Maryland; Lorton, Leesburg and Manassas, Virginia; and Martinsburg, West Virginia.
