Whether you have more cookies than you can sell or you are a troop looking for more cookies, this alternative to going to a Cookie Depot may be the answer. Part of being a sister to every Girl Scout includes helping other troops maximize their cookie sale. It works like this:

The Selling Troop:

- Make it known within your SU that you have cookies available ASAP. Don't wait until the last week.
- Selling price is based on the Incentive Plan of the Purchasing Troop ($2.90 per box if they are on the Traditional Incentive Plan: $2.85 if they are on the Cash Incentive Plan). You lose claim to incentives
- Pay council with funds the purchasing troop pays you. (If your troop is on a different Incentive plan you will either lose or gain $.05 a box.)
- Make a deposit in a Council Cookie Bank Account and submit the deposit slip to your SUCM for credit.

The Purchasing Troop:

- Make it known within your SU that you need cookies. You will pay the selling troop.
- Selling price is based on your incentive plan. $2.90 per box on the Traditional Incentive Plan: $2.85 on the Cash Incentive Plan
- Sell the cookies to customers for $3.50 earning the profit. You claim the sales for Incentives on NC-10.
