Graduating Phi Beta Kappa with University Honors and Honors in mathematics from Douglass College at Rutgers University, Krumsiek holds a Master of Science in mathematics from New York University's Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences. Barbara and her husband, Bart Leonard, reside in Washington, D.C. They have two daughters.

Barbara grew up as a devoted Girl Scout in Queen, New York. She was quoted in a profile in the New York Times. When asked to describe her formative leadership experiences, she stated: "I have to credit the Girl Scouts. It was a huge part of my life growing up in Queens. It was an opportunity to learn selling through Girl Scout cookies. I always vied for the top selling awards. I remember having a troop leader have confidence in me that I could go off and lead a group of girls to start the campfire or whatever." Barbara is the President of the Board of Girl Scouts Nation's Capital. She is former First Vice President of the Board and served as a National Delegate for the 2020 National Council Session of GSUSA. She is also a former member of the National Board of Directors for Girl Scouts of the USA.
