IN YOUR HONOR

Award Yearbook
Featuring the Girl Scout Gold
Award Class of 2019

FROM THE DESK OF THE CEO

Dear Girl Scout family,

Girl Scouts are leading change in their communities and around the globe, inspired by their passion to take a stand and transform things for the better. This is demonstrated by all the girls featured in our 2019 award yearbook.

This year, we honor the highest number of Gold Award Girl Scouts in a decade, 225 Gold Award Girl Scouts! The Gold Award is the most prestigious award a girl can earn and is the pinnacle of the Girl Scout experience. Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors demonstrate leadership abilities and transform an idea into an actionable plan with sustainable impact. Gold Award Girl Scouts distinguish themselves in the college admissions process, often earning scholarships for their achievement. Behind these girls stand their families, Girl Scout advisors, volunteers, and their Girl Scout sisters, who believe in them at every turn.

You will read in this yearbook the many accomplishments of our Gold Award Girl Scouts. These outstanding young women represent not only the brightest and best, but also the most determined. When a girl writes state legislation to protect service animals, teaches communities to grow their own vegetables to combat hunger, or conduct workshops to end the stereotype of mental illness, these are the Girls the World Needs!

We are also proud of our 888 Girl Scout Cadettes, each investing over 50 hours to earn the Girl Scout Silver Award. As Girl Scouts progress, growing in confidence and skill, they complete Girl Scout Journeys and take on projects in their community they care about, as a group or individually. These girls form the pipeline to achieving the Gold Award.

Only at Girl Scouts Nation's Capital can Girl Scouts earn the Silver Trefoil Award. One hundred and ninety-seven Girl Scouts dedicated over 19,000 hours of volunteer service to their local, international and Girl Scout communities. This award prepares them for a lifetime of civic engagement and volunteerism.

Congratulations to all the Girl Scouts featured in this award yearbook. Your hard work and tenacity are the building blocks to a future of leadership. You are at the forefront of leading positive change. Thank you to all the parents and volunteers for supporting our high awardees. Girl Scouts is a life-changing journey, because of your support and commitment to the Girl Scout mission, all girls can strive for greatness.

Sincerely,

Chief Executive Officer
Girl Scouts Nation's Capital

THE GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God* and my country
To help people at all times, and
To live by the Girl Scout Law

Members may substitute wording appropriate to their own spiritual beliefs for the word "God."*

THE GIRL SCOUT LAW

I will do my best to be Honest and fair,
Friendly and helpful,
Considerate and caring,
Courageous and strong, and
Responsible for what I say and do,

And to Respect myself and others,
Respect authority,
Use resources wisely,
Make the world a better place, and
Be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Thank you to the Women's Advisory Board (WAB), 100 of the most influential business leaders from the Greater Washington Region. These women raise the profile of Girl Scouting within the corporate community, and are committed to sharing their expertise with Girl Scouts earning the Gold Award.

ABOUT THE GOLD AWARD

The Gold Award is Girl Scouting's highest honor. This prestigious award is earned by a select group of Girl Scouts who have demonstrated a high commitment to improving their communities, and advocating for lasting change. This past year, from March 16, 2018 to March 15, 2019, 225 Girl Scouts from 25 counties in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia earned the Gold Award.

The road to the Gold Award begins with discovery. Each girl uses her own values and skills to identify a community issue she is passionate about and then determines the topic and audience for her project. Before proceeding, each girl submits a project proposal to the Gold Award Panel. The Panel welcomes all projects for which there is a demonstrated need. The Panel works with Girl Scouts to support the development of their projects and act as mentors along the way.

While working on her project, each Girl Scout dedicates herself to advancing her cause and accomplishing her goal. All of the projects completed this year will have a lasting and positive impact on our region and beyond. From protecting the environment and teaching young people about community issues, to promoting healthy behaviors and helping the homeless, these Girl Scouts have exhibited outstanding leadership, exceptional organizational skills, and a sincere commitment to improving their communities. Congratulations to all of our Gold Award Girl Scouts!

The following pages feature this year's Gold Award Girl Scouts and descriptions of their projects. By necessity, the descriptions are brief and may not fully describe the scope of the project.

It's Time to Brag about your Gold Award Girl Scout

We know that you are proud of your Gold Award Girl Scout's achievement. Now it's time to use your social media to share her powerful story.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, since 1916, Girl Scouts have accepted the challenge of earning the Movement's highest award, thereby demonstrating a commitment to bettering themselves, their communities, and the world; and

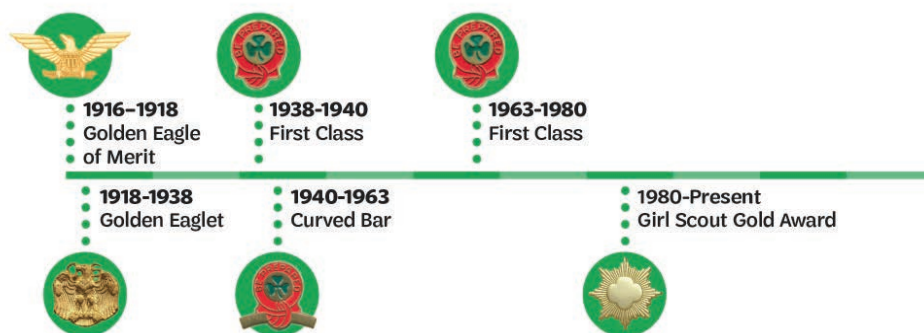

WHEREAS, this highest award has had different names over the years, including the Golden Eaglet (1916–39), the Curved Bar (1940–63), First Class (1938–40, 1963–80), and, since 1980, the Girl Scout Gold Award; and

WHEREAS, those who have earned it have shown the same outstanding leadership skills, determination, and resilience that have made Girl Scouts' highest award a unique rite of passage for young women across the Movement;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Sylvia Acevedo, chief executive officer of Girl Scouts of the USA, do hereby proclaim that all who have earned the highest award in Girl Scouts can on this day, January 15, 2019, and henceforth be recognized as Gold Award Girl Scouts, united by their similarities and their ideals, with all rights and privileges therein.

THROUGH THE YEARS

The highest award in Girl Scouting has gone through many name changes since it was established in 1916 as The Golden Eagle of Merit. Now it's called the Girl Scout Gold Award, but the essence remains the same. It is awarded to girls who embody community leadership through their actions.

GOLD AWARD PANEL

The Gold Award Panel is comprised of six regional groups of committed volunteers who meet every month to help guide girls through the Gold Award process. Our Gold Award Panel reviews proposals and provides constructive feedback to potential Gold Award girls. The Panel members are essential to girls earning the Gold Award through Girl Scouts Nation's Capital.

GOLD AWARD SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Many colleges and universities offer scholarships to Girl Scouts who have earned the Gold Award, because they recognize the leadership skills required to earn this award.

Our Council offers Gold Award scholarships to graduating high school seniors valued $1,000 each to attend the college of her choice. The Gold Award Scholarship Panel is comprised of members of the business community with a commitment to Girl Scouting. The Panel reviewed written applications and identified semifinalists to be interviewed at the Council office. Based on the interviews, committee members selected the scholarship recipients. Our Council also offers a Young Woman of Distinction award to a Gold Award recipient, valued $2,000.

The Council's scholarships for Gold Award recipients are funded through generous gifts from Sara Phillips, a lifetime Girl Scout volunteer, in support of the Sara and Lawrence Phillips Scholarships; a gift from an anonymous donor in honor of Marilyn Carr; and Shenandoah Region scholarships supported through an endowment from lifetime Girl Scouts Eva L. Woolridge and Lynne Seibert-Steptoe.

SILVER TREFOIL AWARD GIRL SCOUTS

The Silver Trefoil Award is an honor that is unique to Girl Scouts Nation's Capital. It is awarded to Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors who have performed a minimum of 100 hours of service.

To earn the Silver Trefoil Award, girls are required to provide 25 hours of national service (including 5 hours of green service hours), 25 hours of global service and 50 hours of service to the Girl Scout community.

This year, we are honored to present the Silver Trefoil Award to:

When you're a Gold Award Girl Scout,
the choice is yours.

You can be the girl that never lets a door slam shut.

You can be the girl that writes her future in the sky.

You can be the girl to heal our planet.

Or the girl who finds innovative solutions that change wrong into right, forever.

By becoming a Gold Award Girl Scout you will have the experience, the leadership skills and the courage to be anything you put your mind and heart to.

So be the girl that makes an impact beyond her own community.

Be the girl with a golden college application.

Be the girl that turns shyness into a light that shines.

Be the girl with lifelong friends and mentors.

Be the girl that can choose her own path.

Your Gold Award never loses value.

Once earned, it will benefit you for life,
so you will always be the girl the world needs.
