

Christy Brundage

Washington, DC

Human Resources Manager

Intel Corporation

Christy is the Global Head of HR for Intel's Government, Markets, and Trade (GMT) organization. In this role, she partners with the Chief Government Affairs Officer to drive a positive employee experience, winning culture, and innovative ways of working. She is based in Washington, DC. As a 15-year Intel veteran, Christy has contributed to the company's brand and reputation as a diverse employer of choice. She passionately advocates to ensure all employees' voices are heard, listened and responded to. She has held other important roles at Intel, including relocation and immigration manager, transition and change manager, strategic employee relations manager, employee resource group manager, diversity program manager, career resource center manager, and HR business partner.

Prior to joining Intel, Christy gained a depth of experience at Eli Lilly and Company, General Electric Company, and Arthur Andersen LLP. She has a M.S. in Human Resource Management and a B.S. in Accounting from Purdue University. She holds the designation of Professional of Human Resource Management through the HR Certification Institute. Christy has served as an adjunct human resources professor at the University of New Mexico, Anderson School of Management.

Away from the office, Christy is just as passionate and active with many organizations in her community. She has served on nonprofit boards including the United Way of Central New Mexico Center for Nonprofit Excellence and Gregory's Fresh Marketplace. She and her husband founded the non-profit, Tools for Learning Outreach Services. In collaboration with the Girl Scouts of New Mexico Trails, they implemented Generation STEM, a robotics program serving New Mexico girls in rural areas who have historically lacked access. Moving to the D.C. area was no different. Her current focus is volunteering as a Troop Leader and serving on the Gold Award Scholarship Panel for Girl Scouts Nation's Capital.

Christy was recognized by New Mexico Business First as a 40 Under Forty Honoree. She was named Working Mother Magazine's Working Mother of the Year; and received the Circle of Achievement Award from the Girl Scouts of New Mexico Trails for her volunteer work as a New Mexico Junior First® LEGO® League coach.

Outside of work Christy enjoys exploring the Eastern Seashore (catching crabs, visiting beaches, and kayaking) with her husband Aaron and their three daughters.

Christy has been a member of Girl Scouts Nation's Capital Nominating Committee since 2021.
