

Sherry F. Bellamy

Takoma Park, MD

Consultant

Sherry helps clients navigate the regulatory landscape and conduct internal investigations. She has particularly deep experience in the telecommunications and energy industries.

Sherry retired in 2009 as vice president and deputy general counsel for Verizon Business, where she oversaw litigation and regulatory matters for Verizon's enterprise and government sales division. At Verizon Communications, she served in a variety of roles with increasing responsibility, including president and chief executive officer of Verizon's Maryland subsidiary, a role in which she represented the company's interests in both regulatory and legislative matters as the company evolved from a monopoly telephone company into a competitive telecom provider.

Sherry has extensive experience with philanthropic board service, presently serving as a member of the Dean's Council for Johns Hopkins Medicine following 20 years' service as a trustee. She was also a member of the JHHS Audit, Compliance and Insurance Committee, the Patient Safety and Quality Committee, and the External Affairs Committee at Johns Hopkins Medicine. Her prior board service includes serving as chair of the board of directors of the Atlas Performing Arts Center in D.C., a director and Executive Committee member of the Maryland Economic Development Commission, the Greater Baltimore Committee, the Economic Alliance of Greater Baltimore, and the Maryland Chamber of Commerce. She also served on the board of managers of Swarthmore College, her alma mater. Sherry received her B.A. from Swarthmore College and her J.D. from Yale University.

She has been a member of Girl Scouts Nation's Capital Board of Directors since 2017 and is a member of the Grievance Committee, and former member of the Bylaws Revision Ad Hoc Committee.
