girl scouts nation's capital

GSCNC Gold Award Proposal Process

1. Girl Scout submits proposal via GoGold
2. Proposal reviewed by Council Staff
3. Girl Scout paired with Gold Award Panel Coach
4. Proposal is advanced by Coach for Panel review
5. Girl Scout presents at Panel Conversation with their Coach, plus two other Panelists
6. Gold Award Panel decision sent to council
7. Council reviews Panel decision letter and sends to Girl Scout

Gold Award Decisions

After you present at your Panel Conversation, the three Gold Award Coaches will make a final approval decision on your Gold Award Proposal.

Proposals can receive one of four ratings, each with their own follow-up actions.

Approved

Girl Scout can begin work on Gold Award Project

Conditional Approval

Girl Scout works with Panel Coach to implement necessary changes.

Project will be approved following satisfactory revisions

Request for Revisions

Girl Scout must significantly rework proposal to meet GSUSA standards

Panel Coach approves updated proposal and sends for further review

Gold Award Panel Chair reviews updated Proposal

New decision made

Does Not Meet Standards

Girl Scout must restart the proposal process if the proposal fails to meet core standards