Go-To Rallyhood Pages for Girl Scout Nation's Capital Volunteers

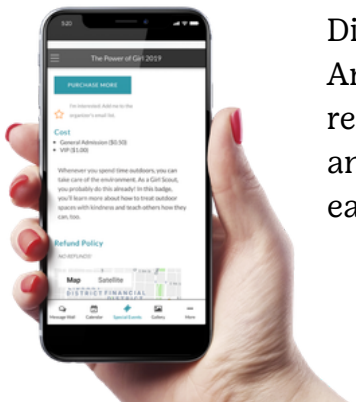

Rallyhood is a public platform used by many organizations, including Girl Scout councils across the country. When searching for rallies, you might come across sites set up by other councils or volunteers from another region. The rallies listed here are the most commonly used by volunteers in our council and are monitored by staff.

Each Service Unit has its own Rallyhood page. To find your area's page, visit the bottom of this webpage: https://www.gscnc.org/en/members/for-volunteers/rallyhood.html and search under your state or district.

If you'd like to create a rally for your troop, please contact a Service Unit Team Member for assistance.
