Beary Good Questions

Q. Who can come and Build-A-Bear?

A. Anyone! You don't have to be a Girl Scout to make a new friend!

Q. Is the Washington, DC Main Shop location a full-sized Build-A-Bear Workshop?

A. The Washington DC Main Shop location is not a full-size Build-A-Bear Workshop. We are a smaller, specialized workshop featuring Girl Scout-themed bears and accessories, along with a selection of everyday animals and adornments. Visit us at our Main Shop location to meet your new friend!

Q. Can I Build-A-Bear without an appointment?

A. Yes! We will be happy to take walk-ins (max 3 at a time) at the Main Shop during the following times:

Monday – Friday
11:00 am - 4:00 pm * Hours are subject to change.

Q. Can I reserve a time for my troop or group?

A. Yes! Please check our reservation request site at <https://form.jotform.com/240096959460061>. Contact us at gsshop@gscnc.org or 202-274-3312 for details. Reservations are available on Saturdays for the following 2-hour time slots:
Saturdays 10:30-12:30 p.m. and 1:30-3:30 p.m.
 Hours are subject to change*

Q. What can I bring to our Build-A-Bear Workshop event?

A. You are welcome to bring party supplies, including food and beverages to your scheduled event. Tables and chairs are available to use. Decorations are encouraged too! Girl Scout Nation's Capital does not provide any party supplies or decorations.

Q. Are there any other options for doing an event?

A. Starting this Fall 2025, we have created Build-A-Bear Home Party Kits to include a stuffed furry friend and a vest/tee of your choice, fun patch, friendship bracelet kits, coloring sheets, and an activity guide to assist you in conducting a BAB event, when and where you want. Kits can be picked up or mailed (shipping charges apply).
